

Acknowledgements

Violence Prevention Initiative Team:

We acknowledge and appreciate the efforts of the Violence Prevention Initiative team and collaborating partners who contributed to the development of this report by framing a shared vision, assembling resources, drafting content, providing data, editing narrative, coordinating team collaboration, and developing communications materials.

Document Design and Technical Support Team:

We would also like to thank team members who contributed technical skill and energy to produce this report in an engaging, accessible, online digital format.

Report Layout and Graphic Design: David Baldrige

Document Production and Web Publishing: Jeannie Galarpe, Frank Montez, and Angel Perez

California Conference of Local Health Officers:

We thank the California Conference of Local Health Officers for their input and support of this initiative, including participation in the survey of Local Health Jurisdiction activities.

We would also like to express appreciation to the members of our Local Health Officer review team:

Muntu Davis, Alvaro Garza, Edward Moreno, and Wilma Wooten

CDPH Department Staff and Leadership

This work would not be possible without the support and leadership of the CDPH Directorate.

Karen Smith, Claudia Crist, Susan Fanelli, and Brandon Nunes

We thank CDPH staff and leaders throughout the department for highlighting the importance of violence prevention, initiating the CDPH Violence Prevention Task Force, and carrying forward a cross-program effort through the Violence Prevention Initiative to strengthen the public health role and contribution in preventing violence.

The Team:

Marissa Abbott,
Stacy Alamo,
Nancy Bagnato,
Ali Bay,
Michele Bonk,
Karen Ben-Moshe,
Mary Campa,
Katey DeSanti,
Martha Dominguez,
Dawnte Early,
Corey Egel,
Erica Eisenlauer,
Scott Fujimoto,
Jim Greene,
Jennifer Gregson,
Levi Hull,
Kelly Kelley,
Rick Kreutzer,
Connie Mitchell,
Julie Nagasako,
Greg Oliva,
Mallika Rajapaksa,
James Regan,
Julie Rooney,
Terica Thomas,
and Steve Wirtz