How to Obtain Certified Copies of Marriage Records

January 1, 2016

CERTIFIED COPIES AND SWORN STATEMENTS

There are two types of certified copies available upon request:

1) Certified Copy (authorized persons only)

If you are requesting a certified copy, you MUST provide a notarized sworn statement (see page 3 of application) declaring under penalty of perjury that you are authorized by law to receive the certified copy (see application for list of authorized individuals).

If you are requesting a certified copy and a notarized sworn statement is not included, the California Department of Public Health—Vital Records (CDPH-VR) will not be able to accept your request for processing.

A certified copy can be used to establish the identity of the person named on the certificate.

Note: Only one sworn statement is required for multiple records that are requested at the same time — but the sworn statement must include the name of each person whose record is being requested and your relationship to that person.

2) Certified Informational Copy (any interested person)

If you are requesting a certified informational copy, you DO NOT need to provide a sworn statement.

A certified informational copy has a legend printed on the face of the document that states, "INFORMATIONAL, NOT A VALID DOCUMENT TO ESTABLISH IDENTITY." Persons who are not eligible to receive a certified copy can receive a certified informational copy.

Both types of documents are certified copies of the original document on file with CDPH-VR. Depending on the exact year of event, some certified informational copies will have signatures redacted (concealed).

ATTENTION:
PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION
BEFORE COMPLETING APPLICATION

AVAILABILITY OF RECORDS

CDPH-VR can ONLY provide certified copies of certificates for public marriages that occurred in the years:

- 1949 to 1986
- 1998 to 1999 and 2011 to Present

CDPH-VR cannot provide a copy of the certificate if the marriage record you are seeking falls outside the range of these years. CDPH-VR is continually indexing older marriage records and will post updates on the website as more years become available for request.

CDPH-VR does not maintain records of confidential marriages. To obtain copies of records not provided by CDPH-VR office, please refer to the enclosed list of county clerk's offices to request copies of these certificates from the county where the license was issued.

CONFIDENTIAL MARRIAGES

A confidential marriage license allows all personal information listed on the certificate to be protected from public view. A copy of the license is available ONLY to the two parties involved, unless there is a court order.

APPLICANT NOTIFICATION

Once your request has been received and evaluated:

- If your request is not accepted (e.g., due to insufficient fees, insufficient information, etc.), the request will be returned with a letter explaining what needs to be corrected; or,
- If your request is accepted, CDPH-VR will process the application and mail out a copy of the certificate(s) you requested.

Please allow a few weeks to receive these documents.

If you need your copy sooner, please refer to the enclosed list of county recorder's offices to contact the county where the marriage license was issued. If you have contacted the county in which you believe your license was issued and they cannot locate your marriage license, it is likely your marriage was never registered. The county will be able to give you more information and further instructions.

PROCESSING TIMES

For Years 1949 to 1986:

Because of a lengthy processing time of more than six (6) months, CDPH-VR encourages you to contact the county recorder/clerk office where the marriage license was issued. If you have exhausted all efforts and cannot identify the appropriate county, you can return your request to CDPH-VR — but only for the years 1949 to 1986. It is important that you state that you are not able to identify the county where the marriage license was issued. Vital Records automatically returns requests for copies of marriage certificates during these years, for referral to the county office, unless otherwise noted.

For Years 1998 to 1999 and 2011 to Present:

If you require a copy within the first six months after the date of event, CDPH-VR recommends that you send your request to the county recorder's office where the marriage license was issued, as CDPH-VR may not have the record available yet. If you choose to send your request to CDPH-VR within the first six months after the date of event, and the record is not available yet, CDPH-VR will issue you a Certificate of No Public Record (CNPR). CDPH-VR will retain the fee for the search, per California law.

INFORMATION:

Public marriage records have been maintained in the California Department of Public Health Vital Records (CDPH-VR) since July 1, 1905.

- 1905 through 1948, 1987 through 1997, and 2000 to 2010: We are not able to provide certified copies of certificates for these years. You will need to contact the County Recorder in the county where the license was issued. Our staff is continually indexing older marriage records and will post updates on our website as more years become available for request.
- 1949 through 1986: Due to the increased and urgent need for certified copies of birth certificates as proof of identity, CDPH-VR is experiencing lengthy delays in the processing time for marriage records. Since this processing time can easily exceed six months, you should submit your request for a marriage record to the County Recorder's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.
- 1998 through 1999 and 2011 to Present: If you require a copy within the first six months after the date of event, we recommend that you send your request to the County Recorder's Office where the marriage license was issued, as our office may not have the record available yet. If you choose to send your request to our office within the first six months after the date of event, and we do not have the record available yet, we will issue you a Certificate of No Public Record (CNPR). Our office will retain the fee for the search, per California law.
- Confidential Marriage Records: We do not maintain confidential marriage records. Contact the County Clerk's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. ONLY individuals who are authorized by Health and Safety Code Section 103526 can obtain a Certified Copy of a Marriage Record. (Page 1 identifies the individuals who are authorized to make the request.) All others may receive a Certified Informational Copy which will be marked, "Informational, Not a Valid Document to Establish Identity."
2. Complete a separate application for each marriage record requested.
3. Provide as much information as possible to help us locate the specific record you are requesting. Complete First Person and Second Person Information for marriage requests. If the information you provide is incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to locate the record.
4. SWORN STATEMENT:
 - The authorized individual requesting the certified copy must sign the attached Sworn Statement, declaring under penalty of perjury that they are eligible to receive the certified copy of the marriage record, and identify their relationship to the registrant (person listed on the certificate) – the relationship must be one of those identified on Page 1.
 - If the application is being submitted by mail, the Sworn Statement must be notarized by a Notary Public. (To find a Notary Public, see your local yellow pages or call your banking institution.) Law enforcement and local and state governmental agencies are exempt from the notary requirement.
 - You do not have to provide a Sworn Statement if you are requesting a certified informational copy of the marriage record.
5. Submit $15 for each copy requested. If no marriage record is found, the fee will be retained for searching for the record (as required by law) and a "Certificate of No Public Record" will be issued to the applicant. Indicate the number of copies you want and include the correct fee(s) in the form of a personal check or postal or bank money order (International Money Order for out-of-country requests) made payable to CDPH Vital Records. PLEASE SUBMIT CHECK OR MONEY ORDER – DO NOT SEND CASH (CDPH cannot be held responsible for fees paid in cash that are lost, misdirected, or undelivered).
6. Mail completed applications with the fee(s) to:
