INFORMATION COLLECTION AND ACCESS: The purposes of this form are to provide information for examination planning, to determine the applicant's eligibility for examination, to identify the applicant, and to provide necessary information for certificate issuance and renewal. All items are mandatory. Failure to provide any information requested may result in delay or denial of examination or certification. Information provided will be maintained by the Training and Certification Coordinator at the address above, telephone (916) 552-9730, under authority of California Health and Safety Code, Section 116110. Each individual applicant or certificate holder has the right to review, on request, the file maintained on him or her by the California Department of Public Health, to obtain copies of information in the file pertaining to that individual, and to challenge such information. (Exception: Although applicants may review completed examination papers under certain conditions, copies of examinations cannot be released.)

TIMELY HANDLING AND APPEALS: Procedures and maximum time periods for considering and issuing certificates are specified in Title 17, California Code of Regulations, Sections 30056.2, 30056.4, and 30056.5. In the event of any dispute arising from a violation of a specified time period, an applicant may appeal by notifying, in writing, the Chief of the Vector-Borne Disease Section, in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 17, California Code of Regulations, Section 30056.1.

Please notify CDPH if the employee is seeking certification reinstatement.
